

DOB: 7/8/35

POB: New York, New York

Address: 1601 Marlay Drive
West Hollywood, CA 90069

Occupation: Founder of Torso International, gay magazine.
President of Varsity Communications, Inc., which publishes Torso International, and president of Jock Magazine.

Embinder lives with Royce Lauren Walker, Director of Production for Torso Magazine. The property they live at is owned by Edward B. Henne, deceased.

In March 1977 All American Distributors Corporation sued Blue Boy, Inc.; Blueboy, Inc., a Florida Corporation; Publishers Distributing Corporation; Donald N. Embinder; and Morris B. Heifner, Jr. for Breach of Contract; Accounting and for Injuntive Relief.

In August 1974 All American signed an exclusive contract to distribute Blue Boy Magazine. In March 1976 All American learned that Heifner allowed Publishers Distributing Corporation to distribute the mag. All American is asked for $100,000 general damages, and a TRD to keep them from distributing the mag. The case was dismissed with prejudice Jan 10, 1980.

Raymond W. Hartman, Century City, was the attorney for Embinder. Robert D. Wilner, Van Nuys, was All American's attorney. Superior Court case #C193964.

At that time. Blueboy was a Delaware Corporation.

Blue Boy, Inc.'s address was P.O. Box 33143, Washington, D.C. 20028. All American's address was 8431 Melrose Place, LA 90069.

In February 1980, Charles (Chuck) A. Spence sued Blueboy of California, Inc., Blueboy of Canada, Blueboy of Florida, Inc., California Knight Life, Inc., John Drummer aka Zak Drummer dba Zachariah Graphics, Donald N. Embinder, Flynt Distributing Co., and Soho Studios for a Temporary Restraining Order, Preliminary Injunction, Permanent Injunction, and Damages for Invasion of Privacy. This is Superior Court case #C313949.

Chuck had been employed as an accountant with Getty Oil Co., Inc. for the previous two-and-a-half years. He claimed that without his consent, pictures of him were distributed in gay mags, and this could ruin his career with Getty.

Chuck says that he answered an ad placed by Zak Drummer who was looking for a roommate. Chuck and Zak became roommates, and during the time Chuck was with Zak, he consented to letting Zak take some pictures of him, but no authorization was given for the pictures to go in magazines. Attached to the court case is an inch-thick of photocopies of pictures of Chuck that were distributed. These are professional, outdoors shots of Chuck posing or having sex with another man/men.

Chuck asked for $250,000 in general damages, and $1,000,000 punitive. It was dismissed March 22, 1984.

Defendants were mentioned later in the file as being Donald Embinder, Zak Drummer, Fred Smith, and Larry Flynt.

Blueboy, Inc. of Florida (Miami) is a corporation conducting business in California as publisher and distributor of the magazines "Blueboy", "Night Life", "California Knight Life" and "Getting Off at the Rocks" (a single magazine/booklet). Embinder is owner. Drummer is an employee with Blueboy.

Zak's address was 1025 North Kings Road, #112, LA. He publishes Gaze Magazine.

Embinder has three DBA's listed in 1985:

- 1) DNE filed Dec 30, 1985. Embinder is the sole registrant, and lists his address as 1601 Marlay Drive.
- 2) D & B Productions filed July 11, 1985. The address for this business is 8033 Sunset Blvd, Suite 637, Los Angeles 90046. Don lists his address as 964 Hancock. One other registrant is Bobb Goldstein, address 1709 N. Fuller #14, Los Angeles 90046.
- 3) Musex Video Productions and X.T.V. Video Productions c/o D & B Productions, 8033 Sunset. Registrants are Don and Bobb.

Sources checked were: Federal, Superior and Municipal courts - civil, criminal and bankruptcy; Recorder's Office; Marriage Records; Assessor's Office; Fictitious Business Names; Library; LA Times, Mag Index, Newspaper Index.

Superior Court Case #WEC 97724 involving Southwest Savings and Loan and Embinder, needs to be picked up at Santa Monica on Monday.

Mlv,
Mo