

NOV - 3 2005

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA
FOR THE COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES

JOHN A. CLARKE, CLERK

M. Godderz
BY MARTIN GODDERZ, DEPUTY

1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28

WOLLERSHEIM

v.

CHURCH OF SCIENTOLOGY

ORDER

C 332027

NOTICE TO: ELLEN MARIE FARWY. Pursuant to their obligations under C.C.P. §§ 611 and 1209(a)(10), members of the jury pool have informed the Court that you have communicated or attempted to communicate with jurors regarding the substance of the above-entitled action. You are hereby notified that this conduct, if true, is contemptuous and punishable as such. Further, this conduct may subject you to arrest and prosecution for a violation of Penal Code § 95.

Under the Court's inherent authority to control its proceedings, and in furtherance of protecting the integrity of the jury process, you are hereby ordered as follows:

1. You shall not communicate or attempt to communicate in any manner with any person known to you to be a member of the jury pool in this case.
2. You shall not enter the Stanley Mosk Courthouse at 111 North Hill Street, Los Angeles at any time during the pendency of this action unless required to conduct official court business and then only upon the advance written permission of the Presiding Judge.

Any violation of this Order is punishable as contempt and may subject you to arrest and criminal prosecution.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: November 3, 2005

William A. MacLaughlin
WILLIAM A. MACLAUGHLIN
Presiding Judge